Equality Cincinnati Appoints New Executive Board

CINCINNATI, July 23, 2007 – At last week’s monthly board meeting, Equality Cincinnati elected a new Executive Board for the next year. George Ellis, the new President, is excited about the opportunities that Equality Cincinnati has before it and looks forward to working with the new Executive Board and the rest of the Board of Directors.

Along with Mr. Ellis, Daniel Drent was appointed Vice President, Freeman Durham, will continue as Treasurer and Kristen Shrimplin was appointed Secretary. Mr. Ellis, speaking on behalf of the group said, “We have some large shoes to fill to replace outgoing President Gary Wright and outgoing Secretary Philecia Barnes. Gary and Philecia have been a great asset to the creation and the work of Equality Cincinnati, since it formed in 2005. The entire board thanks them for all they have done and we look forward to their continued involvement and guidance with Equality Cincinnati.”

Equality Cincinnati mission is working for equality for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender people in Greater Cincinnati; preventing discrimination and violence based on sexual orientation and gender identity. Equality Cincinnati is an independent local organization dedicated to making change here where we live.
